The worksheet is divided into two main columns, each representing a different face. Each column contains a grid of 10 empty rectangular boxes for facial features, arranged in two vertical columns of five. Below each grid are four larger rectangular boxes, each labeled with a name: 'Ann', 'Kat', 'Jim', and 'Nick'. The boxes are intended for pasting the faces and text cards. The text cards are small rectangular pieces of paper with text, which are to be placed in the feature boxes to match the faces.
